

How have seaside holidays changed over time?

Key vocabulary

Accommodation – A place where people stay while they are on their seaside holiday, e.g. apartment, chalet, caravan, guest house, hotel, tent or villa.

Bathing machine – Carriages in which Victorian women changed into their swimsuits.

Entertainment – Leisure activities, performances and attractions situated in coastal resorts and designed for tourists.

Holiday camps – Holiday camps offer all-inclusive family holidays featuring entertainment as well as amenities like swimming pools and fairgrounds.

Package holidays – A ready-made trip organised by the tour operator.

Pier – A platform built out to sea.

Promenade – A walkway along the seashore.

Seaside – A place by the sea where people like to go for their holidays.

Transport – People travel by train, car, boat or plane to their seaside holiday.

Seaside holidays in the UK during Victorian times

Seaside holidays in the UK and abroad during the 1960s

Seaside holidays abroad today

